Mold Dairy Sale ~ Monday 20th April 2026

Comment:

A nice entry of 10 dairy cattle came forward this week, comprising 9 fresh heifers and 1 second calver. These were met by a full ring of buyers, resulting in a flying trade throughout. The section averaged an impressive £2,250, with the top five lots achieving a notable average of £2,624.

Leading the trade was Clwyd Parry, Sychdyn topping the sale at £2,800 with a superb fresh heifer sired by Applejax, calved just two weeks.

Dafydd Jones, Llys Dinmael, presented four excellent heifers, with his top pair selling at £2,650 and £2,600. Both had calved two weeks prior and were yielding 27 litres. The higher-priced animal was a pedigree heifer by Schumacher, followed closely by another quality entry sired by Elevated Red.

Ceredig Evans, Erw Fawr, also maintained his reputation for quality, selling outstanding heifers to £2,620 and £2,450. Both, sired by Mecca P, had calved three to four weeks earlier and were producing 30 litres.

Overall, a very pleasing trade with strong demand for well-presented, freshly calved heifers.
